AFFILIATE MEMBER

(TRICHOLOGIST, SCIENTIST OR RESEARCHER, OTHER)

BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF HAIR RESTORATION SURGERY (BAHRS)
CODE OF CONDUCT FOR AN AFFILIATE MEMBER
(TRICHOLOGIST, SCIENTIST or RESEARCHER, OTHER)

Affiliate Membership of the BAHRS is a privilege, it is not a right. The ethical principles adopted by the BAHRS define the essentials of honorable behavior expected from its Members.

AS AN AFFILIATE MEMBER OF THE BAHRS I AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

- When treating patients, to always have their physical and psychological wellbeing as my primary concern and to treat them as I would wish to be treated or as I would wish a member of my family to be treated.
- To not conduct myself in any way that brings the Association, or the practice of Hair Restoration Surgery into disrepute.
- To not imply to the public or professional colleagues that I belong to another category of BAHRS Membership
- To only use the relevant BAHRS Affiliate Member logo for personal websites and stationary to show personal affiliation.
- To not make the suggestion, or imply, that I am speaking for, or on behalf of, the Association unless asked to do so by the BAHRS President
- To not denigrate my colleagues using false or misleading information with the intent of injuring the reputation or business of a BAHRS Member by any means
- To pay my Association fees within timeframe stipulated in the BAHRS Constitution
- To abide by the BAHRS Membership Terms and Conditions <http://www.bahrs.co.uk/membership/>

I understand that failure to comply with any of the above may result in my expulsion from the Association in accordance with the terms of the BAHRS Constitution.

I recognize that a greater moral responsibility is necessary in cosmetic surgery than in many other fields because of the lack of oversight by the government and/or peer review and the emotional involvement of the patient.
